For the next three and a half weeks, I will have the privilege to facilitate this course. I look forward to meeting you in whatever capacity we can during this COVID-19 period and being able to learn together.

The syllabus for the course has been uploaded on Open EduCat as well. This course will be conducted primarily through online modality. I believe the outline contains all the information you will need to succeed and must, therefore, insist that you read it carefully and thoroughly.

I am looking forward to a great month of learning – I trust you have similar expectations.

In Christ Alone,

Sheldon Campbell, PhD (Cand.)
